Important Notes

- Important Notes Before Applying for Malaysia Business Visa
- For Indian passport holders: Before calling it a “Malaysia Business Visa,” note that Malaysia currently provides visa-free entry for Indian nationals for business, tourism, social and transit purposes for stays of up to 30 days, until 31 December 2026.
- ⚠ Important Points
- Passport validity: Ensure the passport has at least 6 months validity from the date of entry.
- Business purpose must be genuine: Carry a proper invitation/meeting letter from the Malaysian company explaining the purpose, dates and business activities.
- Carry return ticket: A confirmed return/onward ticket should be available.
- Hotel/accommodation: Keep a confirmed hotel booking or proof of accommodation in Malaysia.
- MDAC is mandatory: Complete the Malaysia Digital Arrival Card (MDAC) within the permitted pre-arrival period before travelling.
- Financial proof: Carry sufficient funds/bank statements to demonstrate that you can support yourself during the trip.
- Company documents: Business owners should carry relevant company registration, GST, ITR, company profile and business correspondence where applicable.
- Do not use a business visit for employment: A short business visit should not be treated as permission to take up employment or conduct activities requiring a different Malaysian pass.

- Immigration has final authority: Visa-free eligibility does not guarantee admission. Malaysian immigration officers may ask about your purpose, accommodation, return ticket and supporting documents.
- Check rules before departure: The current Indian visa exemption has a stated end date of 31 December 2026, so requirements should be rechecked before each trip.
- ☐ Best Practice
- Passport + Invitation Letter + Return Ticket + Hotel Booking + MDAC + Business Documents + Financial Proof + Meeting/Conference Details
- For a consultancy checklist, I recommend writing the title as “Malaysia Business Visit – Indian Passport Holder (Visa-Free Entry)” rather than “Malaysia Business Visa,” for trips covered by the current exemption.

Visa issuance is the sole responsibility of the embassy or consulate. We provides consultation and filing support only; fees shown are starting prices for our services and exclude official government charges unless stated.
